♁ MERCURY RETROGRADE

The planet of Mercury, the winged messenger, influences transportation and communication of objects and ideas. It also impacts connecting devices such as pipes, tubes and wires. As Mercury enters its pre-shadow (yellow shaded), these connections start to show signs of impending glitches. Exercise caution. When Mercury is retrograde (red print), these glitches come to a head. MAKE NO ASSUMPTIONS. Use this time to edit and fine-tune. Review past paperwork, sift through closets expect logistcs to flow smoother once again.

and drawers and reconnect with your past. Avoid elective surgery and major purchases, especially those of a mechanical or technological nature. If you have no choice, do thorough research. Delay starting anything new, especially contracts. Double-check critical details, such as appointment times, locations and all relevant data. Hold on to receipts. EXPECT delays to be the norm, so be patient and flexible and have a backup plan. During the post-shadow (gray shaded), expect fallout, such as returned mail sent during the pre-shadow or retrograde. Once Mercury is direct, expect logistcs to flow smoother once again.
